

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS SOUGHT ELIZABETH CITY, NORTH CAROLINA

The Elizabeth City-Pasquotank Board of Education is seeking a superintendent to lead the school system as it continues its pursuit of excellence. Candidates must meet the legal requirements to be licensed as a superintendent in North Carolina or be qualified to serve under the State Board of Education's alternative guidelines. Central office and building-level experience are preferred. A doctorate degree or progress toward a doctorate degree is preferred but not required. A successful candidate will be required to live in the Elizabeth City-Pasquotank School District. Applications are due by January 14, 2019.

A successful candidate must demonstrate ability and success in (1) visionary educational leadership; (2) curriculum and instruction; (3) goal setting and monitoring achievement; (4) fostering community and/or intergovernmental partnerships; (5) administration and organization of short-term and long-term strategic planning, budgeting, and personnel and facility management; (6) strong communication and effective team-building; (7) procuring additional funding; (8) visibility and involvement in community activities; (9) leadership in maintaining safe and orderly school environments; (10) planning and funding of school facilities; and (11) decision making, delegation, and follow-through.

The Elizabeth City-Pasquotank Board of Education consists of seven members elected to four-year terms. The Elizabeth City-Pasquotank Public Schools serve approximately 5,700 students in prekindergarten through twelfth grade. The district operates seven elementary schools, two middle schools, two traditional high schools, an early college high school, and one alternative school. The school system is known for its clear focus on students, community partnerships, and innovative instructional programs. The school district's stated mission is "to ensure and provide an innovative, responsive, and safe environment that prepares and engages all learners."
